OPUS GROUP AWARDED CONTRACT TO HELP THE DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY COMBAT FRAUD

McLean, Va.—(November 8, 2013)—Opus Group, LLC (Opus Group) announced today that it has been awarded the Risk Fraud Service (RFS) contract with the Department of Homeland Security’s US Citizenship and Immigration Services (DHS USCIS) to provide professional IT services in support of the Anti-Threat and Fraud System (ATFS) to help the government strengthen national security safeguards and combat fraud.

"We're excited to support USCIS as it continues to leverage cutting-edge technology and software development methodologies to strengthen our national security," said Alex Guo, managing member of Opus Group. "We're honored to be a part of it."

As the prime contractor, Opus Group will provide project management and Agile teams to perform requirements gathering, development, and test and evaluation activities to implement multiple ESB services critical to increasing the effectiveness of the ATFS. The company will also apply its knowledge of the USCIS technical environment and Agile methodology to help the agency manage the overall systems engineering lifecycle. The RFS contract is slated to span a 12-month period of performance.
